

MPB349 : Project and Portfolio IV: Music Production

The Project and Portfolio IV: Music Production course combines hands-on learning experiences with summative and formative portfolio assessments. In this course, students will integrate basic audio engineering techniques with their knowledge of musical styles to create a genre-appropriate final mix. Students' projects will demonstrate engineering and music production choices suitable to the authentic realization of the style.

Credits 3