APB349 : Project and Portfolio IV: Audio Production

The Project and Portfolio IV: Audio Production course combines hands-on learning experiences with summative and formative portfolio assessments. In this course, students will develop a musical work in multiple versions and genres. Through an iterative model of critique and improvement, students will continue to develop their creative and technical skills and their readiness for professional production .

Credits 3