

CGG382 : Game Production

The Game Production course allows students to use tools, techniques, workflows, and artistic skills and apply them to the creation of portfolio assets. Students will develop skills in time management, production workflow, and portfolio presentation. After successfully completing this course, students will possess a high-quality game-art portfolio piece and presentation images and/or a movie for use in portfolio assembly.

Credits 3