GRD359 : Project and Portfolio V: Graphic Design

The Project and Portfolio V: Graphic Design course combines hands-on learning experiences with summative and formative portfolio assessments. This course builds upon skills taught in previous courses and gives students the opportunity to research and apply new technologies to their portfolio projects. Students will develop prototypes that demonstrate the application of new technologies or techniques.

Credits 3