CGA366 : Visual Development

The Visual Development course provides students with further knowledge of texture painting, lighting and rendering, and effects. Students will continue to develop texturing skills by reviewing real-world visual references and studying lighting as it applies to mood and rendering.

Credits 4