

DAD349 : Project and Portfolio IV: Digital Arts and Design

The Project and Portfolio IV: Digital Arts and Design course combines hands-on learning experiences with summative and formative portfolio assessments. In this course, students will apply the skills learned in previous courses to the development and assessment of students' portfolio projects. In this stage of the portfolio process, students will implement design research, project management, and techniques to manage client interactions.

Credits 3