

FLM4419 : Advanced Production II

The Advanced Production II course is an intensive workshop course in which students will complete their individual projects within their areas of specialization. Each assembled crew will continue to work together on their individual projects with the support and mentorship of film faculty.

Credits 4