

CGG3447 : Game Characters

The Game Characters course focuses on the elements of accurate high-resolution character sculpting. The course material covers proper anatomy, proportion, and fine details. Students will create assets implementing advanced techniques while maintaining realistic surface quality and likeness of reference. Students completing this course will develop a deeper understanding of digital sculpting, topology, texturing, and the use of generated maps.

Credits 4