

CGG443 : Advanced Game Characters

The Advanced Game Characters course expands on sculpting techniques to complete a full game character. Students will create production-ready characters that include cloth, gear, and other elements that make game characters unique. Students will focus on realism while adhering to game-engine constraints by building correct topology and materials.

Credits 3