

MPR3925 : Topics in Music Theory

Students in the Topics in Music Theory course will build upon their prior theory training toward a more comprehensive knowledge of musical structure. The course will cover chromatic harmony, diatonic modes, counterpoint, and advanced rhythmic techniques. Students will also continue to develop their musicianship through vocal and keyboard performance, ear training, and score analysis.

Credits 3