

3D Arts Center

The 3D Arts Center provides a creative environment for Full Sail's visual artists and animators. With traditional art studios and labs that feature powerful computer workstations, this building allows students to develop their animation projects in an inspirational and welcoming environment.

The collaborative atmosphere is ideal for artists to work together on projects, trade animation tips, or simply build relationships with like-minded people.