

Fab Lab

The Fab Lab is more like a workshop than a traditional classroom - it's filled with technology that allows students to create...whatever they need for their projects. From 3D printers and laser scanners to injection molders and power tools, this is a lab where students use their imagination to bring the future to life.