

APR3570 : Musical Structure and Analysis

The Musical Structure and Analysis course builds on previously learned concepts to enhance and develop musical-production skills. Advanced harmonic, melodic, and rhythmic concepts are identified and explored in a popular music format. The course places emphasis on practical application in a project-studio environment.

Credits 4