

CGG452 : Level Assembly and Lighting

The Level Assembly and Lighting course builds on students' understanding of game requirements to construct a playable level. Students will design, build, texture, light, and add effects for a level. Students will learn to develop content for game environments.

Credits 4