

CWB119 : Project and Portfolio I: Creative Writing

The Project and Portfolio I: Creative Writing course combines hands-on learning experiences with summative and formative portfolio assessments. In this course, students will apply knowledge of character creation, plot development, story structure, and visual storytelling to create a collection of written work. Students will examine the current media landscape to identify high-demand skill sets. Additionally, they will utilize tools of revision, editing, word economy, industry-standard formatting, and software to create a portfolio project plan. Upon completion of their projects, students will reflect on the writing and revision processes to deepen their understanding of the workflow common to professional writers across various mediums and audiences.
