CWB358 : Project and Portfolio V: Creative Writing

The Project and Portfolio V: Creative Writing course combines hands-on learning experiences with summative and formative portfolio assessments. In this course, students will choose to employ either the comic-book or game-script format or children's picture-book or young-adult story conventions to create a short story, script, or game cutscene script.

Credits 3