

DGT346 : Digital Audio and Video

The Digital Audio and Video course is a production course that introduces the concepts of timeline-based editing for audio and video. Students will be introduced to the primary concepts of storytelling, sound design, imaging, and editing while adhering to the process of a professional production workflow.

Credits 3