DGT466 : Digital Studio

The Digital Studio course introduces students to working in a studio environment. Students will learn techniques in art direction while creating a series of design concepts. They will work together to develop client-based campaigns across multiple mediums.

Credits 3