

ENC1101 : English Composition I

The English Composition I course introduces students to the principles of writing. Within the context of academic writing, students will learn how to develop ideas, control the voice and style of their writing, and formulate a thesis. Students will also learn to compose logical sentences and paragraphs in order to represent ideas and create rhetorical cohesion. Special attention is given to selecting and refining topics, identifying the audience, developing a purpose, and revising written work.
