

ENTB4485 : Entertainment Business Models

The Entertainment Business Models course provides students with an overview of the entertainment business. It examines the various ways that entertainment organizations operate and generate profit from operations. Students will analyze traditional and emerging business models in various segments of the industry. Students will also explore career opportunities based on current and evolving models.

Credits 3