

FLM464 : Producing

The Producing course explores the world of line producing, from preproduction to final deliverable. Focus will be placed on the many responsibilities of the producer, including script supervision, cast and crew selection, location logistics, budgeting, and scheduling. Students will be tasked to generate a variety of industry-accepted documentation for a project.

Credits 4