

GDN468 : Project and Portfolio VI: Game Design

The Project and Portfolio VI: Game Design course combines hands-on learning experiences with summative and formative portfolio assessments. This course serves as the final checkpoint for students' work in the program. In this course, students will put the finishing touches on their digital project, preparing it for submission to festivals and for release to the general public.

Credits 3