

GEB612 : Business Plan Development

The Business Plan Development Course requires students to incorporate the business skills students have developed over their course of study into research for their own business plan. In this course, students draw on their business, management, and technical knowledge to create and develop a formal business plan. Throughout the course, students receive feedback from their instructors and peers concerning the viability of their business plan in the entertainment industry.

Credits 3.5