

MCM4441 : Media Entrepreneurship

The Media Entrepreneurship course introduces students to the basics of entrepreneurship and the evolving business models for media. The course investigates general concepts of entrepreneurship and how digital technologies and the Internet are transforming media economics. Students will use recent news and communication start-ups as case studies for applying entrepreneurial principles.

Credits 4

Course Length 4 weeks