

MUB3311 : Music Business Models

The Music Business Models course provides students with an overview of music business corporate structure and the support companies that assist in the development, distribution, and sale of music. The course also covers management configuration for each type of entity, from the organizational structure to the specific job responsibilities of various positions within these companies.

Credits 3