

TPA3013 : Lighting Concepts and Design

The Lighting Concepts and Design course is dedicated to conventional lighting-system concepts and introduces students to color theory, photometrics, truss systems, conventional fixtures, dimmers, and terminology. Emphasis is placed on defining live lighting components and system interfaces.

Credits 3